

A PLAN TO WRITE A procedural speech given as the character from a chapter book

Name: _____

(introduction)

Greet your audience in role as the character. Make sure they understand the problem that has occurred, and the reason for the solution you are about to suggest.

(body)

List below your chosen 'linking words and clauses' to ensure clear meaning and variety.

- Conjunctions

- Verbs

- Adverbs

(conclusion)

Relate to your audience with regards to how they might feel about your speech.

B Write your first draft on your 'Write On It', if you are using them or in your books, if you are not.

C Conference your writing with your beta reader. Clarify cohesion of ideas. Grammar choices will help you do this.

D Edit your work and show it to your teacher, who may take a digital copy.

E Either type or rewrite your text in your neatest handwriting before rehearsing and presenting your speech. Give it and all your planning notes to your teacher.
